INFORMATION, CONSENT, AND POLICIES

We are very honored that you have selected Woodlands Family Institute to provide counseling or psychological services. All of us wish to do our best to assist you in making this experience meaningful and fruitful. This document is designed to inform you about my background and to ensure that you understand our professional relationship.

Practicing independently since 1983, I hold the degree of Ph.D. in Psychology and am licensed by the State of Texas as a Psychologist, Professional Counselor, and Marriage/Family Therapist. Additionally I am listed as a Health Service Provider in Psychology at the State and National levels. I hold an abiding belief that no matter how difficult a person's circumstances may be, it is possible to produce meaningful changes. Sometimes this takes a long time to achieve. While some clients need only a few sessions to reach their goals, others may require months or even years. This is truly an individual quest. As a client, you are in complete control and may end our professional relationship at any point. I will be supportive of that decision. Ultimately, my job is to work myself out of a job, so that you feel confident to carry on without my intervention.

This process is a partnership between you and me to work on areas of dissatisfaction in your life or assist you with life goals. For this to be most effective, it is important that you take an active role in the process. This involves keeping scheduled appointments, being forthright about your issues and goals, and openly discussing the process with me. Psychotherapy has been shown to have many benefits. Therapy often leads to better relationships, solutions to specific problems, and significant reductions in feelings of distress. But there are no guarantees of what you will experience. While counseling or psychotherapy can benefit most people, the process is not always helpful. Sessions can evoke strong emotions and sometimes influence unanticipated changes in one's behavior. It is important that you discuss with me any questions or discomfort you may have during the process. I may be able to help you understand the experience or use a different approach that may be more satisfying.

Although our sessions may be very intimate psychologically, it is important for you to realize that we have a professional relationship rather than a social one. Our contact will be limited to sessions you arrange with me. It may be confusing and counter-productive for me to accept gifts or be invited to social gatherings. So please do not ask me to relate to you in any way other than in the professional context of our sessions. I want your sessions to be as safe and secure as possible so that we concentrate exclusively on your concerns. You are best served by experiencing me in my professional role. If at anytime you are dissatisfied with my services, please let me know.

Children can be joyful and energetic, but with respect to the concerns which brought you to us, we request that you obtain a sitter for children not receiving treatment so that our full attention can be devoted to your priorities.

I assure you that our work will be conducted in a conscientious manner consistent with accepted ethical standards. Please note that it is impossible to guarantee any specific results regarding your goals. However, together we will work to achieve the best possible results for you.

Please be aware that I do not provide consultation, evaluation, or legal testimony in child custody, child visitation, or molestation cases. If you require these services, I will be happy to refer you to professionals who work with these issues.

OFFICE POLICIES

FEE SCHEDULE:

Standard Rate: $170.00 per standard 45 minute session or prorated accordingly. Charges for other professional services are prorated on the basis of $170.00 per hour ($2.85 per minute). These services include, but are not limited to, phone calls, insurance reports, third-party consultations, and correspondence. Off-site consultation is charged at the rate of $170.00 per hour, "portal to portal", that is, for the time I am out of the office on your behalf.

Psychological Assessment Rates: Rates for psychological assessment vary depending upon the extent to which procedures are employed. The exact amount will be provided prior to the time of service.

Forensic Rates: $500.00 per hour (or portion of hour) for expert witness court testimony or deposition. $170.00 per hour for local travel, waiting, and preparation for testimony. For out-of-area court appearance, all transportation and lodging expenses must be paid in advance. Records review; consultations with clients, litigants, attorneys (in person or via phone); reports; or any other service provided will be charged at the rate of $160.00 per hour or prorated accordingly. These fees are payable in advance.

PAYMENT POLICY:

Payment is due in full at time of service. Please make out your check before the session begins. Visa & Mastercard are also accepted. It is not our policy to carry balances forward. We expect balances for "forgotten checkbooks" or "forgotten appointments" to be made up promptly or by the next regularly scheduled appointment at the latest. If an outstanding balance accrues, you will be billed on the first of the month and assessed a 2% finance charge, compounded monthly. There is a $10.00 rebilling for every statement sent out after the first billing. There is also a $15.00 fee for each check returned for insufficient funds. After 90 days with no payments or effort to arrange payment, accounts will be turned over to a collection agency and will impact your credit rating.

INSURANCE:

Your health insurance policy is a contract between you and your insurance company. I am not a party to that contract. Although I am not listed as a provider on any network panels, benefits are often available for services rendered by "out-of-network" providers. We advise that you contact a company representative to determine how your insurance company will reimburse you. If you elect to seek reimbursement by an insurance carrier for services rendered, we will provide you with a receipt to assist you in completing your insurance claim. We will consult your third-party payer only at your direction with such consultations billed to your account. Some insurance companies reimburse clients for services, and some do not. Those that do usually require a standard amount be paid by you before reimbursement is allowed, and then usually a percentage of the fee is reimbursable. The client remains responsible for payment in full, including any portion not reimbursed by insurance. Please be aware that: Third-party payers require the provision of a diagnosis and supporting clinical data. We have no control over the confidentiality procedure of third parties once clinical information leaves this office. In all likelihood, a computer record will be generated.

Since I do not contract directly with insurance companies, I am responsible and accountable only to you. Thus my loyalties are not divided, and there is no conflict of interest.

CANCELLATIONS: Since the scheduling of an appointment involves the reservation of time specifically for you, 24 hours advance notice for any cancelled appointments will not be charged. If you are unable to meet this time schedule, but if we are able to assign your appointment time to another client, you will not be charged. Please note that insurance companies do not reimburse for missed appointments.

OFFICE HOURS: Office hours are from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday; and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday unless otherwise specified. Any other time is considered "after hours" and will be charged at 1 1/2 times the standard rate. After hours time is generally reserved for family time and self-care.

EMERGENCIES:

It is assumed that outpatient clients are self-responsible, autonomous, and not in need of day-to-day supervision. Outpatient clinicians cannot assume responsibilities for clients' day-to-day functioning, as can agencies or inpatient hospital settings. Nevertheless, in the event that an emergency occurs, leave a message with the answering service, making sure to state that your call is an emergency. We will respond to your call as promptly as possible. Routine calls will be returned during normal business hours. We can be reached at (281) 363-4220 or (713) 866-4494. If we are unable to respond quickly enough, please call 911 or your local emergency room.

CONFIDENTIALITY:

The law protects the privacy of all communications between a client and psychotherapist. In most situations, we can only release information about your treatment to others if you sign a written authorization form that meets certain legal requirements imposed by federal and state law. There are other situations that require only that you provide advanced written consent. Your signature on our Acknowledgment form provides consent for those activities, as follows:

You should be aware that we practice with other mental health professionals and utilize administrative staff. In most cases, some protected information must be shared with these individuals for both clinical and administrative purposes, such as scheduling, billing and quality assurance. Occasionally, it is helpful to consult other health and mental health professionals about a client. During a consultation, every effort is made to avoid revealing a client's identity. Any other professionals consulted are also legally bound to keep the information confidential. These consultations are very commonplace and routine and may not ordinarily be mentioned in our sessions, unless it seems important to our work together. If you would prefer this to be handled differently, please let us know. All administrative staff members have been given training about protecting your privacy and have agreed not to release any information outside of the practice without the permission of a professional staff member.

We also have contracts with some business services, such as an answering service, electronic claims processing service, and managed care organizations. As required by federal law, we have formal business associate contracts with these businesses, in which they promise to maintain the confidentiality of this data except as specifically allowed in the contract or otherwise required by law. Details of these contracts are available upon request.

I will keep confidential anything you say to me, with the following exceptions: a) you direct me to tell someone else; b) I determine that you are a danger to yourself or others; c) I am ordered by a court or regulatory body to disclose information; d) you disclose abuse or neglect of children, the elderly, or disabled persons; e) the need to release information to other professionals involved in your treatment; f) in proceedings in which a claim is made about one's physical, emotional, or mental condition; g) when disclosure is relevant in any suit affecting the parent-child relationship; h) where otherwise legally required. If you are under 18, your parents or legal guardian(s) may have access to your records and may authorize their release to other parties. Again, please note: Third-party insurance companies require submission of diagnosis and specific clinical data. If you elect to use insurance or managed care to cover part of the cost of your sessions, please be aware that I will be required to provide that information.

Having read the policies described above, I agree to all professional policies, agree to meet all financial obligations, and agree that this contract replaces any earlier contracts. Additionally I understand that there can be no absolute guarantee of cure in the practice of psychotherapy.

Notice of Policies and Practices to Protect the Privacy of Your Health Information

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. Uses and Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

Woodlands Family Institute (WFI) may use or disclose your protected health information (PHI), for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes with your general consent. To help clarify these terms, here are some definitions:

- “PHI” refers to information in your health record that could identify you.
- “Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations”
Treatment is when we provide, coordinate or manage your health care and other services related to your health care. An example of treatment would be when I consult with another health care provider, such as your family physician or a colleague.
Payment is when we obtain reimbursement for your healthcare. Examples of payment are when we disclose your PHI to your health insurer to obtain reimbursement for your health care or to determine eligibility or coverage.
Health Care Operations are activities that relate to the performance and operation of my practice. Examples of health care operations are quality assessment and improvement activities, business-related matters such as audits and administrative services, and case management and care coordination.
- “Use” applies only to activities within WFI such as utilizing information that identifies you.
- “Disclosure” applies to activities outside of WFI, such as releasing, transferring, or providing access to information about you to other parties.

II. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

We may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment, payment, and health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. An “authorization” is written permission above and beyond the general consent that permits only specific disclosures. In those instances when we are asked for information for purposes outside of treatment, payment and health care operations, we will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information. We will also need to obtain an authorization before releasing your psychotherapy notes. “Psychotherapy notes” are notes we have made about our conversation regarding a private, group, joint, or family counseling session. These notes are given a greater degree of protection than PHI.

You may revoke all such authorizations (of PHI or psychotherapy notes) at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) we have relied on that authorization; or (2) if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, and the law provides the insurer the right to contest the claim under the policy.

III. Uses and Disclosures with Neither Consent nor Authorization

We may use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

- Child Abuse: If we have cause to believe that a child has been, or may be, abused, neglected, or sexually abused, we must make a report of such within 48 hours to the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services, the Texas Youth Commission, or to any local or state law enforcement agency.
- Abuse of the Elderly and Disabled: If we have cause to believe that an elderly or disabled person is in a state of abuse, neglect, or exploitation, we must immediately report such to the Department of Protective and Regulatory Services.
- Sexual Misconduct by a therapist: If you report to us any situation that constitutes sexual misconduct by a current or former therapist, then we are required to inform the licensing authority of the offending therapist.
- Regulatory Oversight: If a complaint is filed against a therapist with a regulatory authority, they have the authority to subpoena confidential mental health information relevant to that complaint.

- Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for information about your diagnosis and treatment and the records thereof, such information is privileged under state law, and we will not release information, without written authorization from you or your personal or legally appointed representative, or a court order. The privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or where the evaluation is court ordered. You will be informed in advance if this is the case.
- Serious Threat to Health or Safety: If we determine that there is a probability of imminent physical injury by you to yourself or others, or there is a probability of immediate mental or emotional injury to you, we may disclose relevant confidential mental health information to medical or law enforcement personnel.
- Worker's Compensation: If you file a worker's compensation claim, we may disclose records relating to your diagnosis and treatment to your employer's insurance carrier.

IV. Client's Rights and Our Professional Duties

Client's Rights:

- Right to Request Restrictions – You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information about you. However, we are not required to agree to a restriction you request.
- Right to Receive Confidential Communications by Alternative Means and at Alternative Locations – You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations. (For example, you may not want a family member to know that you are seeking our services. Upon your request, we will send bills or other correspondence to another address.)
- Right to Inspect and Copy – You have the right to inspect or obtain a copy (or both) of PHI and psychotherapy notes in my mental health and billing records used to make decisions about you for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. We may deny your access to PHI under certain circumstances, but in some cases you may have this decision reviewed. On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the request and denial process.
- Right to Amend – You have the right to request an amendment of PHI for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. We may deny your request. On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the amendment process.
- Right to an Accounting – You generally have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI for which you have neither provided consent nor authorization (as described in Section III of this Notice). On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the accounting process.
- Right to a Paper Copy – You have the right to obtain a paper copy of the notice from me upon request, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically.

Our Professional Duties:

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with a notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI.
- We reserve the right to change the privacy policies and practices described in this notice. Unless we notify you of such changes, however, we are required to abide by the terms currently in effect.
- If we revise our policies and procedures, we will post a current copy in our offices. A current copy will always be available on our web site and you may request a personal copy.

V. Questions and Complaints

If you have questions about this notice, disagree with a decision we make about access to your records, or have other concerns about your privacy rights, you may contact Mary Piehl, Office Manager, or your therapist at (281) 363-4220.

If you believe that your privacy rights have been violated and wish to file a complaint with our office, you may send your written complaint to Mary Piehl or your therapist at: 1610 Woodstead Ct., Suite 420, The Woodlands, TX 77380.

You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The person listed above can provide you with the appropriate address upon request.

You have specific rights under the Privacy Rule. We will not retaliate against you for exercising your right to file a complaint.

VI. Effective Date, Restrictions and Changes to Privacy Policy

This notice will go into effect on 3/28/2005. We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and to make the new notice provisions effective for all PHI that we maintain. We will provide you with a revised notice in our lobby and on our web site. You may request a personal copy at any time.
